

In History, we are learning to sequence and explain a celebration or commemoration in the past that has significance today and to describe the experiences at the celebration or commemoration.

Mrs Wheeler came and spoke to us about why ANZAC Day is significant and how she commemorates it.

We have been using information on our learning wall and video sources to answer questions about celebrations and commemorations.