

Year 6 is learning to read and comprehend letters and stories from different historical contexts. They are also learning to analyse and explain language features of these letters and stories. Our next step will be to write our own letter. The examples came from “My Place” written by Nadia Wheatley and Donna Rawlins.