

Year 3's have been engaging in a Drama unit as a part of 'The Arts'. Students have been tasked with devising, performing and responding to a drama based on storytelling. They have been having lots of fun engaging in the dramatic conventions of narration, soundscape, freeze frame and collective role-play to produce a play set in the Australian Outback.

Photos from 3CRO

