

Year 2 News

This term in Year 2, students were learning about different types of texts. One of these texts included procedural texts, therefore students were given the opportunity to cook bread using the procedural text we had been focusing on.

